Think back to when you last shopped for a new car.

- Was it an enjoyable experience?
- Did you walk away feeling like you were a special client or another sales statistic?
- Did you spend more time in sales cubicles or in your new car?
- Was it worth the time and hassle it took to call and visit dealerships to squeeze out less than solid price quotes?
- Did they have exactly the car and features you wanted, and at a final price you felt was fair?
